

I Won't Fall Again
D COOPER GETSCHAL

Somewhere in a kiss Someone stole my heart
And I let it go without a fight
Then somehow something changed
He left me in the night
I told myself love doesn't feel right
I've learned to hide my feelings Nothing hurts me now
Happy ever after I can tell you how

I won't fall again, won't even try
No, I won't fall again, keep all the lies
Look at what I'm saying
Maybe I'm a fool
'Cause here I am falling for you

How can I forget? How can I let go?
Tell me how to learn to love again
Yesterday is gone But the memories linger on
I can't believe it's starting again
Oh, I still feel the heartache
At least I know I tried
Can't you see I'm dying? Dying inside

I know that I won't fall again, won't even try
No, I won't fall again, keep all the lies
Look at what I'm saying
Maybe I'm a fool
'Cause here I am falling for you

If I could try pretending Maybe I could hold on to my heart
If from the very start I could only lie
They say that once you're burned
You'll always be twice shy

That's why I won't fall again, won't even try
No, I won't fall again, keep all the lies
Look at what I'm saying
Maybe I'm a fool
'Cause here I am falling for you

[Outro]
I know that I won't fall again, won't even try
No, I won't fall again, keep all the lies
Look at what I'm saying
Maybe I'm a fool
'Cause here I am falling for you
