

I'll Be Alright

D. Cooper Getschal & Lyndie White Wenner

One more time saying goodbye to love and wondering why.
And so I only hope that I'm learning to make the right choices
I keep hearing voices saying...

I'll Be Alright it's just another heartbreak baby
I'll Be Alright soon as I forget your face
I'll Be Alright I'll just write another love song
I'll Be Alright Lord just get me through the night

Some hearts get so used to feeling this pain but that's not for me
No I believe that all things do
Happen for all the right reasons
That's why I'm believing...

I'll Be Alright it's just another heartbreak baby
I'll Be Alright soon as I forget your face
I'll Be Alright I'll just write another love song
I'll Be Alright Lord just get me through the night

Can't say we didn't try to make it last
How we tried...
But once the feeling changes there's just no use
Cause love turns into lies

Oh, My love is a love that you'll feel forever
So don't be afraid if one day someone says goodbye
Breaks your heart just remember to say to yourself

I'll Be Alright it's just another heartbreak baby
I'll Be Alright soon as I forget your face
I'll Be Alright I'll just write another love song
I'll Be Alright Lord just get me through the night
