

(I'm Just An) ORDINARY SOUL

w/m D. Cooper Getschal

I'm just an ordinary soul trying to do good
An ordinary soul, doing what I should
I'm just an ordinary soul but someday I'll rise above
Because I found an extraordinary Love
Because I found an extraordinary Love

I'm just an ordinary soul with flaws and hangups too
I'm just an ordinary soul trying to work it through
I'm just an ordinary soul but someday I'll rise above
Because I found an extraordinary Love
Because I found an extraordinary Love

Nothing I could do would ever save me
From a fate as bad as anyone can know
Since the moment I accepted the awesome gift you gave me
I've known that someday up to heaven I will go
That's so comforting a thing for me to know Sometimes I forget the many things you are and the blessings from the sacrifice you gave me
You died as your only way to save me and I'm believing the promises you made you made

I'm just an ordinary soul who lives each day by grace
An ordinary soul who's depending on my faith
I'm just an ordinary soul but someday I'll rise above
Because I found an extraordinary Love
Because I found an extraordinary Love

I'm just an ordinary soul here to serve the Lord
An ordinary soul, I'm not looking for reward
I'm just an ordinary soul but someday I'll rise above
Because I found an extraordinary Love
Because I found an extraordinary Love
