

Intuition

w/m D./ Cooper Getschal & Alan Palanker

I've got a ways to go now even tho I've come so far Cause Living life is a journey No matter where we are
And the simple things that I know are true
Are not always what I chose to do
The consequence will always come
No place to hide no place to run

It's like intuition when I hear that still small voice
Under no condition should I make that choice
There's no good reason to make me change me mind
Gonna spread my wings, leave my cares behind

Nothing really matters til love comes along
It takes melody and word to write a song
Troubles come and troubles go
But there's one thing I surely know
Thoughtout it all I can count on you
To lift me up and see me through

Intuition when I hear that still small voice
Under no condition should I make that choice
There's no good reason to make me change me mind
Gonna spread my wings, leave my cares behind
