

Love Is A Fragile Thing

Getschal/ Jeff Silbar

Rain can fall on a sunny day
And heroes can have feet of clay
A star can shine for just so long
Until the breaking of the dawn

But Love Is a Fragile Thing
It can tear like a butterfly's wing
Love is a fragile thing
So be careful what you start
'Cause you can't un-break a heart

Together we walk hand in hand
Searching for the promise land
The will is strong but the flesh is weak
And promises are so hard to keep

But Love Is a Fragile Thing
It can tear like a butterfly's wing
Love is a fragile thing
So be careful what you start
'Cause you can't un-break a heart

What do you really know about me
Who I am or where I've been
Maybe you'd be better off without me
But it feels so right here with you tonight

But Love Is a Fragile Thing
It can tear like a butterfly's wing
Love is a fragile thing
So be careful what you start
'Cause you can't un-break a heart
But Love Is a Fragile Thing
It can tear like a butterfly's wing
Love is a fragile thing
