

“SISTER NICOLETTA”

w/m D. Cooper Getschal & Lyndie White

She's in her own little world very different from mine
Where palm trees sway and the water's blue all de time
She drives on the left and she's living real right
Makes me wanna pack my bags - take the last flight

Tonight I could be sipping on sweet dark Rum
Swaying to the rhythm of a soft steel drum
I can't dream of anything better
Than dancin on the beach with Sister Nicoletta
I can't dream of anything better
Than dancin on the beach with Sister Nicoletta

She knows everybody's name and she'll nod to you
Been there for 20 years, or is it, 22
Oh, The heat has a way of making things stand still Her garden in the tropics - is a mighty good chill

Tonight I could be sipping on sweet dark Rum
Swaying to the rhythm of a soft steel drum
I can't dream of anything better
Than dancin on the beach with Sister Nicoletta
I can't dream of anything better
Than dancin on the beach with Sister Nicoletta

Got an angel on her shoulder No, Her faith won't wane
When troubles made her Move away like the wind
Of a hurricane

She picked up the pieces Made her life a little better
Now she's swimmin with the turtles Sister Nicoletta
A friend to all who met her Sister Nicoletta

Tonight I could be sipping on sweet dark Rum
Swaying to the rhythm of a soft steel drum
I can't dream of anything better
Than dancin on the beach with Sister Nicoletta
I can't dream of anything better
Than dancin on the beach with Sister Nicoletta
