

Smooth One
By
D. Cooper Getschal & Alan Palanker

Everyone's eyes are upon you
Checking to see all the moves that you make
Watching the kind of things you do
Playing a game with the chances you take

You're a smooth one Never let 'em see you crying
You're a smooth one Trying to keep it all inside
You're a Smooth one are you really even tryin'
Such a smooth one someday you're gonna come undone

Trying so hard you can taste it
Taking the path that nobody can see
Life is a chance so don't waste it
If you can't let it go then whatever will be

You're a smooth one Never let 'em see you crying
You're a smooth one Trying to keep it all inside
You're a Smooth one are you really even tryin'
Such a smooth one someday you're gonna come undone

Everyone feels some emotion
We all know the difference between right and wrong
Your smiling is like a potion
Fakin'= a love cause it's already gone

You're a smooth one Never let 'em see you crying
You're a smooth one Trying to keep it all inside
You're a Smooth one are you really even tryin'
Such a smooth one someday you're gonna come undone
