

THE LAST WORD IN LONESOME IS ME

w/m D. Cooper Getschal & Roger Miller

I gave my heart to the girl of my dreams
And we spent many good years together
But love can be much harder than it seems
It can change as fast as the change in the weather
Sometimes that spark can die It usually starts with a lie
To your mate or yourself about somebody else and some feelings you're holding inside
That won't stop for as long as you've tried.

Oh, now The last word in Lonesome is me I'm as alone as one man can be
I would've been fine if not for the crime of love in the first degree
Now, The last word in Lonesome is me

I spent way too much time on the road and not enough long nights with her there at home
I guess that she couldn't wait
But, I wonder how long did she hesitate
Sometimes temptation wins: and it's hard to stop once it begins
There are so many dangers fooling with strangers
Then hiding your secrets of sin
Lord, Why did she have to give in?

Now The last word in Lonesome is me I'm as alone as one man can be
I would've been fine if not for the crime Of love in the first degree
The last word in Lonesome is me

Don't take for granted the one who enchanted
Your heart back when love was brand new Find special ways to give her your praise
Or the same thing could happen to you
And you find out your lover is through

The last word in Lonesome is me I'm as alone as one man can be
I would've been fine if not for the crime Of love in the first degree
The last word in Lonesome is me
