

The Mercy Of The Cross

w/m D. Cooper Getschal

I'm kin to you like water is to rain
When I think about the way you died I can feel the pain
It happens to me time and time again
When I do, Think of You and the Mercy of the Cross
When I do, Think of You and the Mercy of the Cross

I need you like water needs the sea
Somewhere to go where I'm supposed to be
But in the storms you're always there with me
When I do, Think of You and the Mercy of the Cross
When I do, Think of You and the Mercy of the Cross

Most of what I do is really sin
Because it's not with you in mind that I begin
Give me the understanding and the wisdom that will guide me
Fill me with great faith despite the doubt inside me

I seek you like dryness seeks the dew
To quench my thirst and fill me with the truth
No other blesses me like you
When I do, Think of You and the Mercy of the Cross
When I do, Think of You and the Mercy of the Cross

Too many times I get lost in me That's not the way it's supposed to be
But when I put you first instead I win the struggles in my head

I need you like flowers need the sun
To grow and thrive for your will to be done
I'm thankful for my blessings everyone
When I do, Think of You and the Mercy of the Cross
When I do, Think of You and the Mercy of the Cross
