

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

w/m D. Cooper Getschal & Steve Deutsch

I've never seen it, no I, I still can't explain it
All that I know is that I can hear it calling to me
I've always got it, cause I, I know where to find it
And use it to fill in the space of my weakness
And every time that I give it away I keep it
Ain't no way to lose it, stop it or defeat it

Unconditional Love that you send me That's why I'm keeping holding on Unconditional Love that will mend me and it's making me strong
To my rescue float me up to safety Back to higher ground cause
Your Love is gonna save me Unconditional love that you send me

Too much to speak of but I, I still need to say it
It's something that binds us together
I can't find the answers if I, I don't ask the questions
And fill in the blanks with the way That you move me
Like a vision that speaks to me and I listen
Knowing that you're with me Mind and heart and spirit

Unconditional love that you send me
That's why I'm keeping holding on
Unconditional Love that will mend me and it's making me strong
To my rescue float me up to safety Back to higher ground cause
Your Love is gonna save me Unconditional love that you send me

Unconditional love that you send me That's why I'm keeping holding on Unconditional Love that will mend me and it's making me strong
